

BYU Independent Study FERPA Permission Request Form

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that affords parents the right to have access to their children's education records, the right to seek to have the records amended, and the right to have some control over the disclosure of personally identifiable information from the education records. When a student turns 18 years old, or enters a postsecondary institution at any age, the rights under FERPA transfer from the parents to the student ("eligible student"). The FERPA statute is found at 20 U.S.C. § 1232g and the FERPA regulations are found at 34 CFR Part 99.

When the student turns 18 years old, or enters a postsecondary institution at any age, the rights under FERPA transfer from the parents to the student. If the student is enrolled in BYU Independent Study's high school courses and is 18 years old or older or is enrolled in BYU Independent Study's university courses, regardless of age, we cannot release educational records to anyone other than the student. Parents, spouses, siblings, or friends do not have access to the student's educational records unless the student provides signed permission granting a specified person rights to access his or her records. However, if the parent can provide proof that the student was claimed as a dependent in the previous income tax year, the parent may have access to the student's educational records.

If the student is willing to give permission to a specified person to access their confidential educational records (grades, financial information, etc.), the following form must be filled out and submitted to BYU Independent Study.
